

PRESENTS

Employee or Independent Contractor?

Misclassification of Paralegal

Joseph Ortiz, Esq.

Partner at BEST BEST & KRIEGER, LLP

Joseph represents private and municipal employers in employment related matters and is one of BBK's most experienced trial litigators in both state and federal courts. Joseph teaches employment law in the UCR Extension Paralegal Certificate program and was recently appointed to the California Fair Employment and Housing Council.

This one hour seminar is aimed at students who are about to finish their schooling and enter the workplace. During this presentation Attorney Ortiz will explain the major differences between labeling a paralegal an employee or an independent contractor. This crucial difference will help students when applying or interviewing for a paralegal position in a law firm.

Certificates of Attendance will be provided at the conclusion of the seminar at 2:30PM.

One Student Membership will be raffled at the event at no additional cost.
